

How to get a FlowJo license

The SickKids - UHN Flow Cytometry Facility has extended an invitation to Lunenfeld researchers to join the core facility site license at ~$375 CAD per license.

1. Register for an iLab account with The SickKids - UHN Flow Cytometry Facility:
<https://lab.research.sickkids.ca/fcf/registration/>
2. Log into to iLab, go to "Request Services" tab, scroll down to the "Data Analysis", choose "FlowJo Portal License Request", and complete the options.
3. Wait for the flow facility to send a FlowJo invitation to create FlowJo protal account, as well as instructions to transition from HWA serial number to Portal account in the FlowJo software.
